

Programme and Presentations

14 June 2011

Conference and Plenary Meeting of the
Permanent Committee on Cadastre in the European Union (PCC) 9-10 June, 2011
Budapest, Hungary

You can download the presentations in pdf format by clicking on the selected one.

Thursday, 9th June 2011

9:00 - 10:30 Opening Adresses

Official Opening by Imre Farkas, State Secretary of the Ministry of Rural Development
Welcome by Gábor István Horváth Director Dept. of Land Administration, Ministry of Rural Development

- Overview of the Hungarian land administration, Bence Toronyi, General Director of FÖMI, HU
- A new vision for PCC and EuroGeographics cooperation, message from Dorine Burmanje, president of EuroGeographics
- A new vision for cadastres, Pia Dahl Højgaard, National Survey and Cadastre, DK
- Cadastre as pivotal key register in national and European eGovernment, Martin Salzmann, Dutch Kadaster, NL

11:00 - 12:30 New EU cadastral policy, Role of the cadastre in coordinating e-government activities in the EU

- eGovernment Action Plan - impact on cadastral organizations, outcomes and actions, Amalia Velasco, Spanish DG for Cadastre
- Cadastre and e-Government in the Czech Republic, Svatava Dokupilova, Czech Office for Surveying, Mapping and Cadastre
- New Danish e-cadastre and its role in the Danish e-government, Pia Dahl Højgaard, National Survey and Cadastre, DK
- Organisational trends in the official German surveying and mapping, Wilhelm Zeddies, AdV, D
- Professional development for cadastre, educational needs and responses, Béla Márkus, University of West Hungary, HU

13:30 – 15:00 INSPIRE, National Spatial Data Infrastructure

- State of the Hungarian Spatial Data Infrastructure, Szabolcs Mihály, Ministry of Rural Development, HU

- INSPIRE - TWG Buildings: State of Play, June 2011 - Towards review and testing, Frédéric Mortier, General Administration of Patrimonial Documentation, B

- Cadastre iNSPIREd (final report on the project), Julius Ernst, BEV- Bundesamt für Eich und Vermessungswesen, A

- Assessing the demand of Spatial Data Infrastructures and e-services: lessons from the e-Cadastre, Maria Teresa Borzacchiello, JRC, IT

15:30 – 16:30 Use of cadastral information and PSI

- Licensing and Charging in the context of Legal Aspects of Public Sector Information (LAPSI), Clarissa Otto, Institute for Information and Media Law in Münster, D

- Environmental Information System for Local Government Törökbálint using cadastral data and PSI, László Niklasz - É.N. Lehoczkiné, Local Government Törökbálint, HU

- The Cadastre of Public-law Restrictions on landownership in Switzerland, Marc Nicodet, Federal Office of Topography swisstopo, Federal Directorate of Cadastral Surveying, CH

Friday, 10th June 2011

9:00 - 10:15 PCC and EuroGeographics partnership

- Presentation of partnership proposal for further cooperation, Dave Lovell, EuroGeographics

- Discussion – opinions, ideas, proposals of the member countries

- Conclusion of the discussion, agreed issues

10:45 – 12:00 Multipurpose and 3D cadastre, Extension of cadastral activities

- 3D Cadastres in Europe and the Netherlands, Martin Salzmann – Jantien Storer, Dutch Kadaster, NL

- Toward the 3D cadastre in Hungary, András Osskó, FÖMI, HU

- A prototype cadastral parcel map of Europe, Dave Lovell, Executive Director, EuroGeographics

- Importance of cadastre in disaster management, Gyula Iván, FÖMI, HU

12:00 - 12.30: Closing of the Hungarian Presidency

- Closing thoughts and handover of the PCC Presidency, Piroska Zalaba, Ministry of Rural Development, HU

- Presentation of the Polish Presidency, Jolanta Orlinska, Head Office of Geodesy and Cartography, PL